

THE DENMAN FIRESTARTER

First for news. Second for kindling.

Denman Island, British Columbia

April 3, 2012

No. 9

Back issue. The Denman Firestarter did not exist on 2012-04-03. This edition was compiled on 2026-09-06 from the public record as it stood on 2012-04-03, and contains nothing dated after that day — no outcomes, no hindsight. It is a reconstruction of what was on the record at the time, not a document from the time.

Denman enforcement resolution trustees seek guest-accommodation

The committee asks its bylaw enforcement coordinator to draft a resolution protecting guest-accommodation practitioners while regulations are reviewed.

REPORT — FACTS AND CITATIONS ONLY

THE DENMAN FIRESTARTER
The Denman Island Local Enhancement Society Trust Committee asks Bylaw

Enforcement Coordinator Miles Drew to draft a standing resolution protecting guest-accommodation practitioners from enforcement bylaw actions until the committee reviews current regulations. Drew is scheduled to bring a report to the next committee meeting.¹

The committee defeats a separate motion requesting no bylaw enforcement regarding guest accommodations, other than environmental issues, until the regulations are reviewed. The vote is unanimous.¹

The discussion follows a presentation from Denman Island Local Enhancement Society president of the society, says visitor-related economic activity is important for housing caregivers, accommodating visiting family, augmenting income and providing affordable housing.¹

Bylaw No. 186. Simon Palmer, president of the society, says visitor-related economic activity is important for housing caregivers, accommodating visiting family, augmenting income and providing affordable housing.¹

Trustee Graham says community input is necessary and suggests protecting guest-accommodation operators while relevant regulations are reviewed. Trustee Busheikin says wider community consultation is necessary, and Chair Luckham says the broader community's preferred approach to visitor accommodation issues needs to be considered.¹

The committee also directs staff to research funding for an Affordable Housing Strategy for Denman Island.¹
