THE DENMAN FIRESTARTER

The Earth Club Factory plans to extend its bistro by 16 feet to create more room for performances, according to an annual update by owner Sheldon Rempel in this week’s Grapevine.¹

The planned addition includes a clear glass garage door at the end of the extension. Rempel wrote that the project is intended to address crowded events and improve airflow in summer.¹

The update says a GoFundMe campaign is launching in January, with a fundraising target described as half the project cost. The campaign is scheduled to launch on January 17 during a Burying Ground show.¹

THE DENMAN FIRESTARTER

BBL Childcare Centre plans a trivia night on Friday, January 19, at 7 pm in the Back Hall, according to a notice by board president Lindsay McGinn in the Grapevine.¹

The notice says teams of six will compete in three rounds, with a cash prize. People without a team can be placed in one, and beverages and light snacks will be available for purchase.¹

McGinn wrote that the centre provides care for 25 children and employs six Denman residents. The notice says money raised will go to the preschool and daycare.¹

Ukrainian Christmas gathering fills Back Hall

Denman residents gathered at the Back Hall on January 6 for a Ukrainian Orthodox Christmas celebration and meal.

REPORT — FACTS AND CITATIONS ONLY

THE DENMAN FIRESTARTER

A Ukrainian Orthodox Christmas celebration took place at the Back Hall on Saturday, January 6, with traditional dishes brought by friends, according to a Grapevine account.¹

The account says the gathering moved from a private home to the Back Hall eight years ago after it grew too large. The meal included cabbage rolls, crepes, homemade garlic sausage and borscht.¹

The account describes the event as a feast and celebration, and says the organizer felt it provided a Christmas for people who did not have one.¹
