Back issue. The Denman Firestarter did not exist on 2019-01-24. This edition was compiled on 2026-10-01 from the public record as it stood on 2019-01-24, and contains nothing dated after that day — no outcomes, no hindsight. It is a reconstruction of what was on the record at the time, not a document from the time.

Denman Housing Association schedules annual meeting

The association invites residents to hear an update on its affordable-housing project at a meeting on Saturday.

REPORT — FACTS AND CITATIONS ONLY

THE DENMAN FIRESTARTER

The Denman Housing Association’s annual general meeting is scheduled for Saturday, January 26, from 4 to 5 p.m. at the Activity Centre Lounge, where residents are invited to hear the current status of the affordable-housing project.¹

The newsletter says residents can become association members by providing their name and address, with no dues payable.¹

At its November meeting, the Denman Local Trust Committee considered the association’s rezoning application to increase a receiver parcel’s density to a maximum of twenty-five dwellings, including twenty rent-controlled affordable homes.²

The committee’s minutes say staff recommended that the applicant provide further information about groundwater supply, sewage disposal and protection of environmentally sensitive areas.²

Health centre adds monthly women’s clinic

A physician is scheduled to begin monthly women’s clinic visits at the Zella Clark Health Centre on January 30.

THE DENMAN FIRESTARTER

The Zella Clark Health Centre is scheduled to hold its first women’s clinic with Dr. Stevenson on January 30, according to a report from the Denman Health Centre Society.¹

The society says the physician will attend one afternoon a month to begin with, with the schedule adjusted depending on demand.¹

The report also says Wednesday morning visits by Life Labs will continue at the medical clinic.¹
