No. 308

Back issue. The Denman Firestarter did not exist on 2021-06-10. This edition was compiled on 2026-10-01 from the public record as it stood on 2021-06-10, and contains nothing dated after that day — no outcomes, no hindsight. It is a reconstruction of what was on the record at the time, not a document from the time.

Denman Housing Association rezoning application awaits staff report

The Local Trust Committee discussed the association’s request to advance its affordable-housing application and heard that water and wastewater reports were being finalized.

REPORT — FACTS AND CITATIONS ONLY

THE DENMAN FIRESTARTER

The Denman Island Local Trust Committee discussed the Denman Housing Association’s request to move its rezoning application forward at its May 4 meeting.¹

The association asked the committee to advance the application through third reading and Ministry review conditional on receiving a water licence, according to the minutes.¹

Staff said a report was anticipated for the next committee meeting, including progress on preliminary items, and suggested the committee could consider direction on next steps then.¹

Simon Palmer, speaking for the applicant, said water and wastewater reports were being finalized and indicated the property could sustain the project’s needs without conflict; he said the reports would be sent to planning staff when complete.¹
