No. 315

Back issue, The Denman Firestarter did not exist on 2021-07-29. This edition was compiled on 2026-10-01 from the public record as it stood on 2021-07-29, and contains nothing dated after that day — no outcomes, no hindsight. It is a reconstruction of what was on the record at the time, not a document from the time.

Denman shoreline cleanup planned for September

The Association for Denman Island Marine Stewards is leading the Denman and Hornby work as part of a wider Central Salish Sea cleanup.

REPORT — FACTS AND CITATIONS ONLY

THE DENMAN FIRESTARTER

Denman Island Marine Stewards will take part in a province-funded shoreline cleanup, with beach cleanups on Denman and Hornby scheduled for September.¹

The Association for Denman Island Marine Stewards is leading the Comox Valley portion of the Central Salish Sea Cleanup, which includes Denman, Hornby and the coastline from Little River to Bowser.¹

The project team includes Liz Johnston and Beth Janz of ADIMS and Lisa Pierce. The article says vessels and trucking will be funded, while volunteers will collect debris from beaches.¹

Registration information is scheduled to be posted at the end of August. Residents are asked to report stockpiles of collected debris or major waste on beaches for pickup in September.¹

Denman trustees approve two development variance permits

The Local Trust Committee approved permits for a kitchen addition and a proposed affordable-housing subdivision step.

THE DENMAN FIRESTARTER

The Denman Island Local Trust Committee approved two development variance permits at its July 6 meeting, according to the adopted minutes.¹

One permit allows a kitchen addition at 5621 Lacon Road to be sited within 13.09 metres of the natural boundary of the sea, rather than the regulated 15.0 metres. The minutes say the addition was amended to 8’x24’.¹

The committee also approved a permit for Pandesign Inc. to vary the minimum lot size for the residential portion of a split-zoned property at 1151 Kirk Road, permitting a subdivision as an initial step toward a proposed multi-unit affordable-housing project.¹

The minutes say the variance would not increase density and that the residential lot would remain residential.¹
