

THE DENMAN FIRESTARTER

Back issue. The Denman Firestarter did not exist on 2021-09-02. This edition was compiled on 2026-10-01 from the public record as it stood on 2021-09-02, and contains nothing dated after that day — no outcomes, no hindsight. It is a reconstruction of what was on the record at the time, not a document from the time.

Denman community programs look to mid-October start

DICES says school-district changes to facility booking are delaying after-school and adult programs.

REPORT — FACTS AND CITATIONS ONLY

THE DENMAN FIRESTARTER

DICES says it has permission from the school district to resume adult community programming at the school this fall, but changes to facility booking are delaying access to school space for after-school programs.¹

The organization says the district is moving to digital scheduling and that programs are looking ahead to mid-October start dates.¹

DICES says indoor instructors and participants must follow provincial requirements for masks and proof of vaccination.¹

The organization also says computer access hours are changing to Wednesday and Thursday evenings, with tutoring available by appointment on Wednesdays.¹

Denman Conservancy schedules September book sale

The annual used-book fundraiser is set for Saturday mornings, with arrangements depending on the weather.

REPORT — FACTS AND CITATIONS ONLY

THE DENMAN FIRESTARTER

The Denman Conservancy Association says its used-book sale will run every Saturday morning in September, after the event was cancelled last year because of COVID-19.¹

The association says the sale is planned outside at the market when weather permits, or upstairs in the Old School if it rains.¹

For an indoor sale, masks will be required, the number of browsers will be limited, and proof of vaccination will be required after September 13, according to the notice.¹

The notice says proceeds help maintain protected lands in the association’s care and that books are available by donation.¹

Newcomers welcome party postponed

A notice says the September 25 gathering at the Denman Activity Centre is postponed because of the COVID situation.

REPORT — FACTS AND CITATIONS ONLY

THE DENMAN FIRESTARTER

The Newcomers Welcome Party scheduled for September 25 at the Denman Activity Centre has been postponed, according to a community notice.¹

The notice says a new date will be announced when it is safe to welcome people.¹
