Back issue. The Denman Firestarter did not exist on 2022-03-03. This edition was compiled on 2026-10-01 from the public record as it stood on 2022-03-03, and contains nothing dated after that day — no outcomes, no hindsight. It is a reconstruction of what was on the record at the time, not a document from the time.

Denman housing proposal advances through review

The Local Trust Committee endorsed a draft farming questionnaire and discussed proposed changes to the Denman Green affordable-housing bylaws.

REPORT — FACTS AND CITATIONS ONLY

THE DENMAN FIRESTARTER

The Denman Island Local Trust Committee endorsed a draft community questionnaire for its Farming Regulation Review Project and released up to $2,000 for advertising and mailing it to residents and property owners. The committee also directed staff to schedule and advertise a community information meeting in the spring.¹

At a February 15 special meeting, the committee discussed proposed amendments to bylaws for the Denman Housing Association’s Denman Green project, including reduced parking requirements in response to site constraints. A representative of the association supported the proposed reduction.¹

The minutes record that the committee generally endorsed the questionnaire subject to changes discussed at the meeting. They do not record a decision on the proposed Denman Green amendments in the available text.¹

Activity Centre seeks donations after closures cut income

The Denman Activity Centre is asking for donations after closures reduced its membership and rental income.

REPORT — FACTS AND CITATIONS ONLY

THE DENMAN FIRESTARTER

The Denman Activity Centre is seeking donations, saying extended closures over the past two years cut fitness-centre membership income and prevented rentals of its lounge, gymnasium and commercial kitchen.¹

The notice says the centre continued to face cleaning and sanitizing costs, fixed operating costs and the cost of providing free internet access. It invites donations by cash, cheque or refundable containers.¹

Donations of $20 and above can receive a tax receipt upon request, the notice says.¹
